Please respond to the following questions and comments as thoroughly as possible:

1. You may be working directly with the public on many emotional and controversial subjects as a representative of the Henry County Humane Society of Geneseo. Have you had previous experience with the public? Explain.

2. Continuous cleaning and disinfecting of the kennels, cat enclosures, shelter and office is necessary daily to ensure the health of the animals and to keep up the appearance of the shelter. Are you willing to accept this as part of your job?

3. Part of our responsibility is educating the public on problems of pet overpopulation and animal welfare. Please state your feelings on the subject.

4. We are a not-for-profit organization and operate on a limited budget. We insist our staff report to work on time with minimal absenteeism. Would anything prevent you from doing this? If so, please explain.

5. Do you feel comfortable working around animals? List any experience you have with animals, be it as pets or in a professional capacity.
